

esély

2012/3

Social Policy Journal

CONTENTS

Key issues in contemporary Hungarian social policy and the potential for change

Conference organized by the Faculty of Social Sciences of Eötvös Loránd University, Hilscher Rezső Social Policy Association, Gyere Association and CArE Europe

- 3 Foreword
- 5 Section 1. Transition from institutional to recovery-oriented community care: challenges throughout Europe
- 5 Zsolt Bugarszki: Introduction
- 7 Jan Pfeiffer: Developments in Central and Eastern Europe with regard to transition from Institutional to Community Care
- 13 Robert van Voren: Reform of the mental health system in Eastern Europe and in the former Soviet Republics
- 17 Jean-Pierre Wilken: Developments in Western Europe with regard to transition from traditional to recovery oriented care
- 21 Dirk den Hollander: Recognition of power and the power of recognition
- 27 Section 2. Reforms sabotaged. Why have failed the comprehensive social policy reform initiatives in Hungary?
- 27 Keynote speech by Péter Gyóri and the roundtable
- 50 Éva Kónig: From idea to realization or the trickling reforms
- 63 Section 3. Conversations about the chances of kids
- 68 Roundtable 1. Programs for giving kids a chance – differences and similarities
- 87 Roundtable 2. Early childhood services – their necessity, efficiency and recognition
- 102 Section 4. New means, methods and approaches in helping professions
- 102 Summary of the section's work by Gábor Hegyesi
- 108 Workshop lead by Magdolna Barcy, Miklós Kenderfi and Nóra Hegyi-Halmos